

REGION 5 CONVENTION GUIDELINES

REGION 5 CONVENTION DEFINITION:

It is a special event, usually lasting from 8 p.m. Friday evening until Sunday noon. The actual length of time is determined by the group conscience of the Region 5 Convention Committee.

PURPOSES OF A REGION 5 CONVENTION:

1. To stimulate unity; to bring people together from many groups within our region as well as from distant areas to share with each other.
2. To contribute to a greater understanding of the OA program and the people who are part of it through open meetings to which the public, professionals, and media are invited.
3. To provide an opportunity to experiment with new ideas not usually done at a regular meeting. (It is Region policy that these new ideas be within the framework of the 12 Steps and 12 Traditions.)
4. To provide a variety of program options, which strengthens those recovering from compulsive overeating as well as to those with a desire to stop compulsive overeating.
5. To allow for raising money for Region purposes.

HOSTING A REGION 5 CONVENTION:

It is sponsored by Region 5 with organization initiated by the Region Assembly. The intergroup in the area where the convention is held serves as the "host" group.

The general duties and responsibilities listed below are meant to be guidelines only. The hosting intergroup(s) have restrictions or opportunities unique to them. The hosting intergroup(s) will have the right to modify the duties and responsibilities as appropriate as long as the Region 5 Convention Committee is in agreement. Any discrepancies will need to be run by the executive board.

REGION 5 CONVENTION ACTIVITIES/EVENTS:

Activities and events are determined by the hosting Intergroup Convention Committee in conjunction with the Region 5 Convention Committee. Events should reflect the 12 Steps, 12 Traditions, and 12 Concepts. In addition to a banquet with speaker, other possible events are:

1. A marathon room (continuous pitch meetings);
2. Speaker meetings;
3. Workshops (fourth step, for example);
4. Special focus meetings for OA young people, men in OA, couples in the program, etc;
5. A room for meditation, discussions, sponsors doing step work, etc;
6. Luncheon;

REGION 5 CONVENTION COMMITTEE REQUIREMENTS:

The convention chairperson should be a region representative or past RR who has 1 year of current continuous abstinence, is practicing the 12 Steps, who has been active in OA events or workshops, and who lives near the site of the convention. The convention chairperson is approved by the Region 5 Assembly at the assembly which follows the acceptance of the convention bid. (11-8-14) The chairperson will select the committee heads from volunteers who are also abstaining and practicing the 12 Steps. In some instances, it has been suggested that a state or province within a region take responsibility for a sub-committee with one person as sub-committee head.

HOTEL LIAISON DUTIES:

The convention chairperson will serve as liaison with the hotel. All persons need to work through the chairperson for any hotel contacts.

Duties and responsibilities as hotel liaison:

1. All arrangements with the hotel should be in a written contract to be signed by Region 5 chairperson and convention chairperson ten (10) months prior to the convention. This is done as soon as possible after the site is selected and the convention chairperson is approved.
2. Become thoroughly familiar with all hotel facilities and services.
3. Negotiate all arrangements for meals including planning the menus.
4. Work with Program Committee head for arrangements of meeting rooms and audio equipment. Keep it simple, remember costs involved.
5. Arrange for rooms with tables for literature display, recording, discussion and/or meditation, hospitality, etc., and a secure area for literature and Intergroup Marketplace.

6. Arrange for a registration area.
7. Negotiate with hotel for complimentary rooms. The convention committee will decide how these rooms will be used.
8. Negotiate room and prices of meals to determine the cost of the package for the weekend.
9. Keep the hotel informed of number of meal and room guarantees.
10. Negotiate with hotel to offer the convention sleeping room rate one day prior to the convention and the last day of the convention.

SELECTING THE ACCOMMODATIONS FOR THE CONVENTION:

1. Verify the capacity of various meeting rooms.
2. Verify the capacity and availability of restaurants or cafeterias in hotel or within vicinity of hotel for non-function meals.
3. Verify the capacity of the banquet room, allowing for people who are listening to the speaker only.
4. Inquire whether we can provide our own diet pop, coffee, and tea.
5. If not, see if the hotel will be able to provide coffee, tea, and diet soda for purchase during all meeting times, and find out how much they will charge.
6. Verify the capacity and number of sleeping rooms.
7. Determine the current and/or projected costs of sleeping accommodations.
8. Determine the current and/or projected costs of meeting rooms.
9. Determine the current and/or projected costs of meals.
10. Inquire the times meeting rooms will be available.
11. Verify the availability of elevators if the hotel is more than one story.
12. Verify that meeting rooms will be heated or air-conditioned as appropriate.
13. Verify that sleeping rooms will be heated or air-conditioned as appropriate.
14. Determine if the hotel can provide food selections to fit a majority of different types of meal plans.
15. Verify that good speaker systems are available for large meeting rooms. See if they will allow us to bring in outside equipment.
16. See if there is a stage or platform available for meeting rooms.
17. Determine smoking restrictions.
18. Inquire as to whether there are any other rules or restrictions for use of the facility, i.e., if food is allowed in the meeting rooms.
19. Verify amount of deposit required (if any).
20. Check into other hotel or motel accommodations in the immediate area.
21. Inquire if there any restrictions on people bringing in their own bag lunch.
22. If the prospective site is a college campus, see if dorm facilities are available for husbands and wives attending together, especially bathrooms.
23. Find out if linens are furnished in a college dorm setting, or if attendees need to bring their own.
24. Determine the availability of transportation to the facility from public transportation such as buses, trains, or airplanes.
25. Check the accessibility of getting to the convention site from other areas of Region5.
26. Determine the capacity of restrooms near the meeting rooms.
27. Verify how many functions the facility has accommodated that were the same size as we anticipate.
28. Determine the cost, if any, of meeting rooms. What do we get for the amount of sleeping rooms rented and banquet meals ordered? (Meeting rooms should be complimentary by guaranteeing a certain number of sleeping rooms.)

29. See what service(s) the facility provides for groups holding meetings.
30. Determine check-in and check-out times for rooms.
31. Investigate local attractions.
32. Inquire whether or not we can bring in entertainment.
33. Verify pool and other recreational facilities available at the facility.
34. See if the facility will provide meeting space for periodic convention planning meetings.
35. Inquire of the hotel if there are any plans for renovation, construction, or redecorating planned or being considered during or prior to the planned convention dates.
36. Check with the hotel to make sure that if someone uses their "hotel points" system to pay for a room, it will still count as part of the commitment for room nights.
37. Inquire if there are other events scheduled at the hotel on planned convention dates.
38. Check with the hotel about daily charges for a phone landline, if needed by the recording company.
39. Ask that the same booking code be used for the hotel's online and telephone reservation systems. To avoid confusion in the hotel reservation setup, use the nomenclature Region 5 instead of Region 5.
40. Consider accessibility/special accommodations (eg: mobility, audio/visual).
